Treasurer Magaziner Hosts 8th Annual Young Leader Awards Ceremony

Published on Monday, May 09, 2022

2022 Young Leader Award presented to 66 Rhode Island high school juniors for outstanding academic and civic achievement

General Treasurer Seth Magaziner tonight hosted a ceremony honoring 66 high school juniors from across Rhode Island with the General Treasurer's Young Leader Award.

"The 2022 Young Leader Award winners have already made meaningful contributions to their communities both inside and outside the classroom," said General Treasurer Seth Magaziner. "I am inspired by all of the passionate honorees and excited to see how they will impact Rhode Island and the world in the future."

The Young Leader Award is presented to high school juniors across the state who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in math, economics, finance, and business-related courses, and who are active in their community. Since 2015, Treasurer Magaziner has recognized over 400 Rhode Island students with this high achievement.
